Greetings from Your TPIEF Office (#2: Kurayoshi Office)

This is the second of a series of introductions to the activities and environs at each of TPIEF's three offices.

Here's our Kurayoshi office

Some come to study Japanese one-on-one.

Features of TPIEF Kurayoshi

Our Chinese coordinator for international relations, Yu Lan Liang, is here on Wednesday afternoons. The lively and vivacious Ms Liang will be happy to help you with your consulting needs.

Wednesday afternoons also feature Japanese language classes in the meeting room of the same building, giving you a chance to meet many of the learners. (Inquire for details about class schedules.)

[The 3 Most-Sought Book Types at Kurayoshi]

- ①Oxford Reading Tree series: A big hit with parents and children learning English
- ②Cookbooks from overseas: Many of our visitors are eager to try out recipes they

- don't often encounter
- ③JLPT study materials: These are most borrowed just before the tests in July and December.

Young or old, regardless of sex or nationality, we have something for everyone. Come and visit us!
